RE: Message from Acting Chief Judge Kenneth Sanborn

Dear Chief Justice Taylor and Justice Weaver:

The following is a message Acting Chief Judge Kenneth Sanborn dictated to my secretary on October 2, 2008:

October 2, 2008

Judge:

Judge Sanborn came down to tell you the following:

I got a call at home last night from Justice Taylor. I need you to give Judge O'Sullivan a message -- you should probably take notes.

There were three motions made by Betty Weaver yesterday.

Number one was a motion to dismiss me as Chief Judge which was denied.

Number two was a motion to appoint Judge O'Sullivan as Chief Judge. That was denied.

The third one was to file a Judicial Tenure Complaint against Judge George and that was denied.

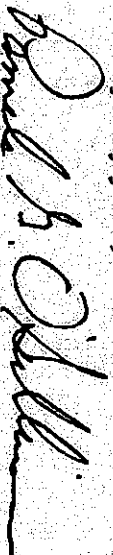

All three motions were unsupported.

Chief Justice Clifford W. Taylor

Judge Sanborn confirmed late Friday, October 3, 2008 that this is the message that he wanted delivered to me by my secretary.

Please confirm that what Judge Sanborn said Chief Justice Taylor told him to tell me is accurate and is what occurred at the October 1, 2008 conference. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

PAMELA GILBERT O'SULLIVAN
